About Our Presenters

Our morning speaker, Kevin Wagner, grew up doing landscaping and was a self-employed landscaper during his college years. He now grows and tests plants for Proven Winners in his own residential yard. He and his family live in Westerville, and their home's beautiful landscape was featured on the 2021 WesterFlora Garden Tour. He will be speaking on "Layering Annuals."

The afternoon presentation will be designs by Carol Johnson, a Master Judge from Cincinnati, will be the 2022 designer for all the spring district shows. Carol has a chemistry degree from Marietta College. She brings that history of experimentation to her garden when she ponders what she will do with all her flowers. Her presentation entitled "A Little Bit of This and That" is a snippet of how designs are made. Carol is a great floral designer.
